

A Perfect Day to Go Fishing with Grandpa

Author offers a new children's picture book that will entice the young ones to go out fishing

Duluth, MN – From author D.R. Rands comes a vividly colored and charming picture book that lets grandfathers and grandchildren think of a great day to spend a good time outside. In Grandpa! Can We Go Fishing?, readers will join Grandpa and two boys as they try to get the catch of the day while enjoying the time spent together.

The two boys ask their Grandpa if they can go fishing. Grandpa thinks that it's a great idea. But first, he teaches the boys what to prepare before they go fishing. He tells them to get the fishing equipment: the net, life jackets, worms, minnows, anchor, and jigs. Then Grandpa takes them to his secret fishing spot. Will the boys learn to fish? Will the boys be able to catch a fish? Readers are about to find out as they join Grandpa and the boys in their fishing adventure.
